

Decatur's Original Historic Neighborhood

Media Contact:

Alan Duesterhaus 312.248.4833
president@millikinheights.org
www.millikinheights.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

*Millikin Heights to sponsor City Council candidate forum
Tuesday, March 9th at 7:00pm via Zoom*

DECATUR, MARCH 2, 2021 -- Millikin Heights is sponsoring a City Council candidate forum on Tuesday, March 9th at 7:00pm via zoom. The forum will allow citizens to hear responses directly from each candidate. Questions will cover a range of topics including neighborhood revitalization, economic development, and leadership style. The zoom call link will be available on the Millikin Heights website – www.millikinheights.org – at 6:45pm on Tuesday, March 9th.

All six candidates have confirmed their attendance – Ed Culp, David Horn, Jacob Jenkins, Chuck Kuhle, Marty Watkins, and Will Wetzel.

The candidates will be given 2 minutes each to respond to each question.

All voters in Decatur are encouraged to join the zoom call to learn more about each candidate.

About Millikin Heights

Near Westside Restoration and Preservation Society (NWRAPS) d/b/a Millikin Heights is Decatur's original historic neighborhood centered around the James Millikin Homestead and anchored by Millikin University, Oakwood Business District, the Decatur Historic District, and Lincoln Park. It also serves as a 501(c)(3) CHDO for the City of Decatur. More information is available at www.millikinheights.org.

###